PATIENT & FAMILY: RESOURCES

Home Away from Home: Places to Sleep and Rest

Traveling to a new town for medical care doesn't have to be a hassle. We want you to feel as comfortable and stress-free as possible. Contact your insurance plan (find the number on the back of your insurance card) for help arranging transportation or reimbursement for gasoline, personal care assistance after you get home and for help arranging hotels.

If your insurance does not have hotel assistance available to you or your family, here are a few options you may find helpful. Please call ahead to confirm current rates and availability.
